

Resources during the State of Emergency

The following resources are available to the community during the State of Emergency. Please follow the links or call ahead to confirm with the agencies listed.

Provincetown Schools is offering grab and go groceries for students on Tuesdays and Fridays. For more information see their website.

Soup Kitchen in Provincetown (SKIP) continues to offer free lunch to the community, now to-go until April 24th or until further notice. Monday through Friday, 12:30-1:30 pm or until the food runs out each day. Pick up a lunch by driving by the front door of the Methodist Church, 20 Shankpainter Road. Call 508-487-8331 for more information.

Stop and Shop Provincetown is offering special hours for seniors and the immune compromised every day from 6 – 7:30 am. Hours for the rest of the community are from 7:30 am – 8 pm. Call 508-487-4903 for more information.

J&E Fruit and Produce, Inc. is offering home grocery delivery service during the State of Emergency. You must set up an account with them to get started by contacting orders@jeproduce.com or 508-487-3627. All orders must be placed by 10:30 am for same day delivery.

If you need help accessing resources and you don't work with any local agencies, Provincetown's Community Support Liaison, Alex Juchniewich, can help. You can reach Alex at (508) 237-7042 and Alex@HPCCApeCod.org.

The Provincetown Food Pantry located at the Methodist Church is still open. To access, call Lower Cape Outreach Council in Orleans: 508-240-0694.

Crystal Free will be offered via ZOOM at 5:30pm on Wednesdays. If you would like to attend, email dgates@asgcc.org in advance of the meeting.
